

Seneca Lake Wineries Bus Tour!

Saturday, August 14th 2010

Departs Sears Parking Lot at Viewmont Mall 8:00 a.m.

Complimentary Wine Glass, wine and food tasting on the way to the Seneca Lake Wineries!

- 10:30 a.m. First stop Zugibe Vineyards, located in Geneva, NY. Zugibe is passionately committed to providing their guests with an unmatched experience from their excellent premium wines to their breathtaking setting.
- 11:30 p.m. Three Brothers Wineries & Estates, located on the upper part of Seneca Lake. We will taste from three unique wineries and a microbrewery all on one estate.
- Stoney Lonesome: Taste their premier cabernet. Their expansive outdoor deck overlooking acres of picturesque vineyards and the beautiful shores of Seneca Lake.
- Bagg Dare Wine Co.: Cajun speak for Back There, for those of you who have a lot more fun in a dive bar. Perfect description of their backwoods bayou tasting room. Wander down the dirt trail to the edge of the pond and here you'll find it. It's a great place to chill, take your shoes off, have a glass of their Killer Dog Head Red. And, enjoy a picnic lunch put on by Il Vino Novello Co.
- Passion Feet Vineyard & Wine Barn: A cozier, more intimate alternative to the Seneca Lake Wine Trail. We'll taste some hearty wines.
- War Horse Brewing Company: One thing that all of the brothers agree on is a crafted microbrew.
- 2:30 p.m. Cascata Winery, located in Watkins Glen, NY. Founded by two college professors in 1995. Cascata Winery embodies the fusion of art and wine in a quaint Boutique setting. Their wines include dry, semi-dry Vinifera, dry and semi-dry French-American Hybrids & Sweet Lambrusca.
- 4:00 p.m. Penguin Bay Winery & Champagne House in Romulus, NY., just 12 miles north of Watkins Glen, nestled on a hillside overlooking the beautiful lake. We'll be tasting some great wines and sparkling wines, and you can also browse their extensive selection of unique gift items.
- 5:00 p.m. We load the bus to come home with more memories and more wine! Hopefully we learned something about Wine! Because....Wine is not just about tasting, it's about learning!
- 7:30 p.m. We arrive back at the Viewmont Mall.

Tickets are $80.00 per person
